

Oral Presentation Rubric

Name: _____

Date: _____

	1	2	3	4
Organization	Student presents information using an illogical sequence	Student skips around without smooth transitions. Some logical sequence.	Student presents information in a logical sequence.	Student presents information concisely and logically.
Content Knowledge	Student does not understand content information; student cannot answer questions related to the topic.	Student does not understand content; can only answer basic questions related to topic.	Student is knowledgeable about content but does not elaborate sufficiently when answering questions.	Student is very knowledgeable about content. Sufficiently answers all questions.
Visuals	Student used no visual aids	Student used a visual aid that did not specifically support text.	Visuals were related to the presentation	Student used visuals to clearly reinforce text.
Mechanics	Four or more spelling or grammatical errors	Three spelling or grammatical errors	Two or one spelling or grammatical errors	Zero spelling or grammatical errors
Delivery	Student mumbles, incorrectly pronounces words, and is difficult to hear.	Student incorrectly pronounces words and is difficult to hear.	Student's voice is audible. Most words are correctly pronounced.	Student's voice is clear. All words are correctly pronounced.

Total score: _____